

Meet the Band Director

Laura Scheidt is a cum laude graduate of George Mason University. She holds a Virginia State Teaching Certification for Music Education as well as a Bachelor's Degree in Instrumental Music Education. She currently runs the band programs at six Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Arlington. Laura also teaches privately and plays clarinet for the Fairfax Wind Symphony. She is an active member of MENC, the National Association of Music Educators, and enjoys attending events and concerts in the greater DC area.